Please note that books 67 → 78 (-77) have 50 sheets each, this is the same no of sheets/book as the 1773 issue and were prepared for issue to some degree, in 1773. It is believed therefore, that these notes of £3 & 20s all have the printed back. H.W.H. 11-12-2000

VIRGINIA CURRENCY

- 508 July 17, 1775, 20s, James River Bank Form, About Very Fine. Whole and complete without the typical tears and major problems. Two old collector paper seals pasted onto the blank reverse at right, in order to reinforce the fold. Fully readable and clear. .... (375-450)

Choice 1775 James River Bank Form

- 509 September 1, 1775, 20s, James River Bank Form, Printed back, Extremely Fine. All printing and written text boldly visible and clean in appearance. A small 1" sealed tear along the top vertical fold repaired. A most pleasing and strongly printed example. Scarce so choice and vibrant. .... (650-750)
- 510 May 6, 1776, 1s3d, "PISTEREEN" and "&" variety, Very Fine. Nice for the grade, a 1/4" split at the bottom centerfold edge. Scarce. .... (250-300)
- 511 October 7, 1776, $8, Very Fine. Clean and pleasing, some minor thin reinforcement fiber along the heavy centerfold on the blank reverse. .... (125-175)

Exceptional $10 of May 4, 1778

- 512 May 4, 1778, $10, Printed Date, Thin Paper, Choice Crisp About Uncirculated. A great looking note having a wonderful bright, clean and fresh appearance. One of the very finest examples we have ever seen and certainly a note which would prove virtually impossible to ever improve in quality. Full margins but for the upper right corner where it is close and slightly rounded. The left margin is super-jumbo. One faint crease keeps us from calling this note fully crisp. The signatures are bold and sharp and the eye appeal is simply outstanding. A premium note. .... (800-1,000)

- 513 July 14, 1780, $60, Thin Paper, Extremely Fine. Appearance of AU, but having some small edge tears and chinks out of the top right corner tip and 1" x 1/4" at bottom center. Still, quite pleasing and collectible. .... (100-150)
- 514 October 16, 1780, $200 & $500, both Thin Paper, Good & Fine. Both silked for preservation on the blank verso and missing note paper. Lot sold "as is". (2 notes). .... (100-150)

- 515 October 16, 1780, $50, Extremely Fine. This thin rice paper note has a small 1/2" strip of fiber paper reinforcement along the top edge of the verso. A few scattered trivial internal tears and some scattered tone present. An above average example. .... (200-250)

- 516 October 16, 1780, $200, Choice About Uncirculated. A rather outstanding example, rarely found so choice in appearance printed on rice paper. Four large to jumbo margins surround the well printed, clean and vivid example with rich brown ink signatures and serial number. Small ink acid erosion hole at the lower left signature, plus a faint centerfold from CU. .... (200-250)

- 517 October 16, 1780, $300, Choice Extremely Fine. A very nice note, printed in black ink on rice paper. Strong brown ink signatures and serial number and exhibiting three full margins. Bottom being a bit too close. Very nice. .... (200-250)

207 books containing 40,414 notes, no spoilage deductions

Note: Most books consisted of 100 sheets of 2 notes/sheet, however, towards the end of the list of James River notes, perhaps cleaning up, odd numbers of sheets per book appear, such as the £3 denomination.

This Treasurer's Record, TR-63 does list deductions of spoilage, however, it does not clarify which denominations are deleted.

Included with this package is a Treasurer's account of "Fillers" a four page list which does show the specific deletion by denomination of both London (Ashby) notes and James River Bank notes, so an accurate count of deletions is available, and consequently the total emission of each denomination is shown in my cover sheet. The count was checked three times, and I believe correct.

The enclosures will, I hope, explain the issues shown at the bottom of "Fillers" list page 4.
In order to do so, I've enclosed the Treasurer's account page for the issues of 1773 James Ruess notes, and the London (Ashby) issue of 1774.

James River note issue of 1775 please refer to the enclosed xerox of the Gazette article by Treasurer Nicholas of April 28, 1774, and the Treasurer's list of notes ("fillers") page 4 bottom.

Book numbers 67 → 72 inclusive, were filled, numbered, & signed in 1773 but were not issued until 1775-76. [probable no printed back]

Book numbers 73 → 80 were numbered only, and not filled or signed until 1775-76.

P.S. Since no filler's name appears for books 73 → 76, its possible they were filled as well as numbered in 1773, but were definitely not signed until 1775.

TREASURY OFFICE, April 26, 1774.

IT having been represented to me that Doubts are entertained in several Parts of the Country of the Goodness of some of the Treasury Notes of the last Emission, because there are found double Numbers of some of the Bills, I think it necessary to inform the Publick that the upper Number of each Bill only denotes the Number of the Book out of which it was taken, and that the lower Number shows the Series of the Bill; both of which are of singular Use to the Treasury, where the original Books, with their Counter Checks, are carefully preserved. The Paper on which the Money was impressed consisted of single Slips, each containing two Bills; fifty of those Slips were bound in separate Books, which were numbered from Book 1 to 78 inclusive; so that, of the Notes in Circulation, there may be found one Hundred, whose upper Numbers are the same, though the lower Numbers are all different. The Manner in which it was proposed to fill up these Bills was explained, and universally approved, at the last Session of Assembly, and I did not suppose the smallest Doubts could arise in any Part of the Country. I have endeavoured to trace every Report that has been circulated to the Prejudice of the new Money, and can truly declare that I have not the least Reason to suspect that any of it has been counterfeited. I will not presume to say it is impossible to be done; but am hopeful that the great Difficulties, which must attend it, have discouraged even an Attempt. These Bills, however, will be very speedily called in, and I am persuaded that all Doubts and Scruples will be effectually removed.

(2) RO. C. NICHOLAS, Treasurer.
